1. A new Digital Byte is posted on "Using Jing."

Watch the video. It's just over 16 minutes long.

2. Recent Digital Lites Posts

- Communication School Tips for School Librarians and Teachers
- WAPL Conference Recap: Apps & Beyond

3. Overdrive Selection Committee

The WVLS OverDrive Advantage Selection Committee meeting minutes from May 5 are linked on the WVLS OverDrive & Libby Resources Page.

4. State Library News & Resources

- The recording of last week's webinar with BiblioBoard on Pressbooks and SELF-e can be found here.
- The Wisconsin Author Project is still open and accepting applications through June 30th. Since the launch of the contest just over a month ago, 33 books are submitted! Visit the WPLC site to learn about it and find some resources for promoting it to your community.
- Christine Barth of RL&LL shares genealogical print materials that can now be found online, in the blog post, "ILL and the Genealogist."
- The latest ALSC blog post covers "Talking with Young Children (0 - 5) About Race." ALSC (Association for Library Service to Children) is a division of the American Library Association.

5. Reminder for Public Libraries to Contact County Clerks by July 1 (Repeat)

According to Wis. Stat. 43.12, a public library seeking reimbursement for nonresident circulations must submit invoices to the clerks in home and adjacent counties by July 1, 2018. In turn, the adjacent county must pay the library at least 70% of the cost for that service by March 1, 2019. Spreadsheets and information regarding Act 150 and Act 420 county reimbursements was shared with member libraries in early March and placed on the WVLS website.

Please feel free to contact Marla Sepnafski (msepnafski@wvls.org) for additional information or assistance.

6. Public Library Director Certification Fall Courses and Scholarships (Repeat)

Continuing Education Services at the UW-Madison iSchool announces a scholarship for Wisconsin library directors currently taking certification courses. Three scholarships are available for Fall 2018. They will cover the entire cost of one certification course ($415) each of the three winners. The application deadline is August 15. Visit the iSchool website to view the courses, and for more scholarship information.

Have a great week!