

1) Delivery Updates

- There is a new document and Digital Byte on best practices for packing delivery items. Both items are posted on the WVLS website.
- Delivery tags are still circulating that say "Waltco Sort." Eventually, all of the tags will say "WVLS." As of now, either tag still works and the bin will get to WVLS for sorting.
- All questions, including checking on delivery status and requests for more bins should be sent to courier@wvls.org.

2) Get Ready for Udemy

Gale Presents: Udemy will soon be available to all WVLS member library patrons.

With Gale Presents: Udemy, patrons can connect to thousands of video-based courses in business, technology, leadership, and personal development. This top collection gives users access to relevant skills training, helping them achieve success at work and in life.

Save the date for an online training opportunity at 11 a.m. on Thursday, July 11. WVLS staff are working on getting the site up and running before the launch, and will be assisting libraries on promotional materials. Stay tuned!

3) Library Closure Survey for Later 2024

WVLS requests that all libraries respond to a survey to collect library closure dates on and around major holidays from August 2024 - January 2025. Survey responses will alert WVLS staff to adjust due dates in Sierra and inform Waltco of modification to a library's courier schedule.

Please have a staff member complete this survey on behalf of your library by Friday, June 28.

4) Recorded Webinar on Copyright Basics

What is fair use? How about Creative Commons? Can you use that image you found online? Can you make copies of that disc? How about making copies of that online article for a meeting? What if you cite the source for the material?

Learn what rights copyright holders typically have in the United States, and what exceptions may come into play in our everyday work in libraries. Presenter Laura Solomon is the Library Services Manager for the Ohio Public Library Information Network and a W3C-certified front-end web developer. This webinar is worth 1 contact hour toward public library certification. Watch it here.
